Task Performed in this week :

- We downloaded the data from the kaggle.
- We tried gaussian Blur on the data for creating artificial fog for our training dataset.
- We researched about the different format of data set that can be used for the input for the model

Outcomes :

- Boundary of the data gets destroyed while using Gaussian blur for the dataset, hence it cannot be used to get artificial fog.

Tasks to be performed next :

We will find a better solution to create artificial fog.
